

The Caterer, Licensee & Hotelier Student Chef of the Year 2011

RBC Publishing, publishers of The Caterer Licensee & Hotelier, in association with the organisers of the Hotel & Catering Show, is sponsoring the Student of the Year Competition 2011. Selected finalists will be invited to compete in a “cook off” at the Hotel & Catering Show at the Bournemouth International Centre on Tuesday 15th March 2011.

The winner will receive a catering prize of their choice up to the value of £300 and the runner up will receive a catering prize of up to £100.

Open to students attending full/part-time college catering courses.

First Round Competition details:-

- Design a menu for “Gourmet Dinner” suitable for 200 covers.
- Each student is required to submit a three-course menu (Starter, Main Course & Dessert).
- Recipes and costings are required for 4 covers, and must not exceed £8 per head.
- Pictures may also be submitted but are not essential.
- Consider the Competition Final time of 40mins to reproduce 2 courses (Main & one other), when designing your menu.

These entries must be submitted with the form below, by 18th February 2011, when they will be judged and the finalists chosen.

Competition Final:-

Eight Finalists will be invited to cook their menu at the final which will be held at the Hotel & Catering Exhibition, BIC, Exeter Road, Bournemouth on Tuesday 15th March 2011.

- Finalists will be required to reproduce 2 covers of their chosen menu, 2 courses only (Main Course and either the Starter or Dessert) within 40 minutes.
- A commis chef is allowed and will be able to fully assist in all cooking preparation. The commis chef should also be a student.
- Mis en place should be kept to minimum, so the skills shown can be marked.
- Competitors are advised to show as many skills as they can within the time allowed.
